DRI is currently offering a free year of membership to new members and those whose membership lapsed more than five years ago. This limited time program runs through September 30, 2026*, so join today and start making the most of your FREE DRI membership now!

Why DRI?

DRI is the largest association of civil defense attorneys and in-house counsel, connecting members regionally and nationally. DRI considers itself to be a partner in your career. Let us help you:

- Network with more than 16,000 like-minded practitioners and industry representatives.
- Enhance your skills with innovative programming and content.
- Grow your practice by being searchable in our Find a Lawyer directory.
- Expand your learning and leadership potential by engaging with one of more of our 30 substantive law committees.

For more than 50 years, DRI has been the recognized leader in providing the contacts, tools, resources, and education needed to be successful in an ever-changing and competitive legal environment. The benefits of DRI membership are countless and evolving.

Program Eligibility: To qualify for the SLDO/NDO Free DRI Membership Program, you must:

- Be a current or a new member of a participating SLDO/NDO. A current list of participating SLDOs can be found here: <https://www.dri.org/membership/sldo-pilot>.
- Be a first-time DRI Member OR a former DRI member whose membership lapsed prior to June 1, 2021.
- Complete an online membership application by scanning the QR code below.

Additional Details:

- Membership eligibility will be cross-referenced between DRI and SLDOs/ NDOs. If it is determined you do not meet the qualifications, you will be given the opportunity to pay for an individual membership, or have your membership canceled.
- Individuals applying must meet DRI's Individual Membership criteria: "Lawyers in private practice who devote a substantial portion of their professional time to the representation of businesses, insurance companies and/or their insureds, associations, or governmental entities in civil litigation."
- Please contact membership@dri.org for more information.

 Program dates may vary slightly by SLDO/NDO.*
